

MUSIKUSS RELEASES "AUF TROCKEN" - A SUBTEXT SINGLE ON APORED

September 23, 2026

Hamburg, 2026-09-23 - musikuss releases "Auf Trocken," a new German-language hip-hop single from the Subtext series. The song is about YouTuber ApoRed - without naming him once. It is out today on all major streaming platforms, accompanied by an official video on YouTube.

THE FILE STAYS ONLINE

In the song, he is "der aller Echte" - the self-proclaimed realest, staying "auf trocken" on camera while stories get deleted and channels disappear. The verses set that pose against the public record: a fake-bomb prank in Hamburg in 2016 that ended in a seven-month suspended sentence, a German arrest warrant reported since March 2023 over alleged probation violations, a private insolvency made public in 2022 - and a life outside Germany.

The hook carries the message: whatever he posts, however well he hides and however much he lives "im Film" - the file does not go away.

"You can delete a story, hide a channel, stay abroad," musikuss says. "The file stays. And the song is also for the fifteen-year-olds who still believe every word."

PART OF SUBTEXT

Subtext is a series of German-language hip-hop singles about public figures and online controversies. The lyrics name no one and stick to publicly documented facts - the context is public, and the listener connects the dots. Earlier releases include "Linksradikal," "Antisemit," and "Requiem für 7 vs. Wild."

AVAILABILITY

"Auf Trocken" is available now on Spotify, Apple Music, YouTube Music, and all other major streaming platforms.
